

Anti-Human Trafficking Program
Organised by Railway Protection Force (RPF), Rajgangpur
In cooperation With IQAC
S.D WOME'S COLLEGE, RAJGANGPUR

On 4th October 2023, a programme on antihuman trafficking in cooperation with RAF, South Eastern Railway was held at Sarbati Devi Women's College, Rajgangpur. Many RPF officers participated in this programme and created awareness about human trafficking occurring through trains as it is the cheapest form of travel in India. Inspector Ramprasad Yadav, RPF Rajgangpur told about Railway helpline number 139 where anybody can complain and ask queries. ASI Roshan Sahu explained how people are getting trapped by the fake job brokers and ending up doing illegal activities forcefully. ASI Mr. Bhoi highlighted the points regarding safe train journey. Principal Mr. Bipin Choudhury spread awareness regarding human trafficking and advised students to stay aware about such activities. Mr. Sapan Panda, IQAC Co-ordinator gave an example of a similar incident which had occurred with some ex-students and advised the students to stay alert against such incidents. The program concluded with the vote of thanks. More than 500 students and faculties participated in the events.
