

HAR GHAR TRIRANGA

Organised by

SARBATI DEVI WOMEN'S COLLEGE, RAJGANGPUR

A "Har Ghar Tiranga" rally was organised at Sarbati Devi Women's College on 14th August 2025 as part of the Government of India's campaign to inspire patriotism by encouraging citizens to display the national flag prominently in their homes during Independence Day celebrations. The programme was presided by the principal Dr Sasmita Lenka. All the NCC, NSS and students of +3 and +2 along with the staff members of the college observed the Har Ghar Tiranga event by going on a rally to create awareness and patriotic feelings among the citizens of Rajgangpur. The students sang patriotic slogans and songs and distributed flags among the people. Such rallies foster a sense of patriotism, unity, and civic responsibility among students, as well as encourage broader community participation in national celebrations. The programme concluded with the distribution of refreshments.
