On July 4, 2025, Sarbati Devi Women's College organized a Van Mahotsav Week celebration with the theme "Ek Ped Maa ke Naam 2.0", under the guidance of our respected Principal, Dr. Sasmita Lenka and NSS POs. Forest Officer Guru Charan Mandal graced the occasion as the chief guest. The program was successfully conducted by the NSS wing of our college, with active participation from all NSS volunteers.

The IQAC Co-ordinator Mr Sapan Panda told the students about the need to promote environmental conservation and tree plantation, highlighting the importance of sustainability and eco-friendliness. The chief guest's presence added significance to the occasion, inspiring students to adopt green practices and contribute to a healthier environment.

The program included various activities, such as tree plantation drives, environmental awareness sessions, and interactive discussions. Students participated with great enthusiasm, planting trees in honor of their mothers, symbolizing love, care, and gratitude towards the environment. The enthusiastic participation of NSS volunteers reflected the college's commitment to fostering a culture of sustainability and social responsibility. Overall, the Van Mahotsav Week celebration was a resounding success, promoting awareness and action towards environmental conservation among the students and the community. The programme concluded with the distribution of refreshments and vote of thanks
