

WORKSHOP ON EMPLOYABILITY AND SKILL TRAINING PROGRAM

Organized by IQAC and Placement Cell

Sarbati Devi Women's College, Rajgangpur

From Dt.05.10.2024 to 10.10.2024

A week long workshop on EMPLOYABILITY AND SKILL TRAINING PROGRAM for all +3 final year students was organized by the IQAC and placement cell of Sarbati Devi women's college Rajgangpur from dt.05.10.24 to 10.10.24 in collaboration with Mahindra pride classroom under Naandi foundation. The program began with inaugural speech given by principal Dr Sasmita Lenka and NAAC coordinator Mr. Sapan Panda in the presence of all the students and master trainers Mr. Sanjay Mishra, Mr. Bibhu Sundar Mohanty, Mr. Ansuman Mishra and Miss. Ankita Maharana. The students were divided into four groups under four master trainers they were asked to attend the class regularly for six hours and take advantage of it. The students were taught different skills regarding setting of goals, how to achieve it, how to face interviews, posture, communication skills etc. In order to keep them intact the master trainers engaged them in group discussion, showed them videos and gave them different activities to do. The students were found interested and excited in the classroom. The students were given study materials and manuals. The best performers were awarded with Trophies and certificate was given to all participants by MPC.

On the last day that is on 10th October 2024 , while taking feedback from the students they were full of enthusiasm and confident. They said they liked the program and want more program like these. The master trainers also had good feedback about the students.

Review by the Master Trainer -

It was indeed a great pleasure to be a part of training initiatives with Sarbati Devi Women's College and Naandi foundation and Mahinda College. The journey has been long and we can see a positive change in the college year after year.
Let's keep this ongoing training on continue year after year.

Actually I would like to thank all the college faculty and my heartiest welcome to our beloved principal maam and panda Sir for allowing us to conduct the training session with the lovely people and the budding young minds. The college atmosphere as well as the students are really very good.
Hope the college conduct this program in the same way.
